Ignoring the Blobs?

Is it ok to ignore the degree of the blobs in Euler operator computations?

Is it ok to treat the blobs as scalars in semi-symmetrized computations?

How should I treat blobs in co-products?